The V. G. Shivdare College of Arts, Commerce and Science is run by Dakshin Solapur Taluka Shikshan Mandal, Solapur. The college management has decided to create the central library for all its sister institutes. So, that under a common umbrella everyone can utilize the library at its optimal way. The expenditure for this library is shared by all sister institutes. Thus our college has provided maximum number of computers for creating digital library (at present there are 8 computers in library for student use which are provided by our college.) The books purchased by us is shared with their students and vice a versa.

For digital library the central library has subscribed to DELNET. The payment for DELNET is done by our sister institute i.e. College of Pharmacy, Solapur.
